MEMORANDUM FOR ALL PHIBLANT COMMANDING OFFICERS

Subj: Refreshments in wardroom

1. For your information and action as you see fit, I have personally overheard Admiral Bell say many times that he does not like to see kool aid served in the wardrooms of ships. Over to you.

Respectfully,

J. E. McCauley
Captain, U. S. Navy

Harper's introduces

THE THREE-MINUTE EGGHEAD

(portrait of the new know-nothing)

He reads the book review and claims he's read the book . . . a film review is sufficient to judge the work . . . pop and op clutter his halls . . . and fancy bindings gleam from the walls.

Harper's is not for him. No way, because culling the superficial yields even more superficial thinking.

INTRODUCING THE HARPER'S READER. YOU?

He's tuned in to the best reading in America. So he reads The Washington Monthly, and books—lots of books—and Harper's Magazine.

Why? Because he knows that it takes brains and guts, talent and time, faith and skepticism to produce a great magazine every month.

It takes the same virtues to read it, to understand it, to heed its constructive criticism. It takes a lot for this quid pro quo. YOU, FOR INSTANCE?

Perhaps you pride yourself on having an open mind. But do you have it? Really?

You like intellectual challenge, stimulation, the inner pleasure of a new thought—however alien. But if it questions (with intelligence, perception, and understanding), if it really questions some of the basic "truths" you hold as self-evident, will you admit the thought?

If so, then you'll enjoy the new Harper's.

AND WE'LL MEET YOU HALFWAY

The editors want to help you make sense out of what's making news. And the publisher will pay half the freight if you'll go halfway too.

The coupon below can bring you the next eight months of Harper's for only $2.84, payable later if you like. That's half the regular subscription price for the same eight issues.

Try it. If you don't like it, cancel and you'll get a full refund for all unmailed copies. That's a promise. And a guarantee.

Mail the coupon today. Tomorrow you'll be wiser for it.
